

2015 TESTS: HONDA, YAMAHA, KTM

CCC
02977

DIRTBIKE

KTM 350 vs. 450

OCTOBER 2014

VINTAGE
YZ MODS
WHEN MEN WERE MEN

PRODUCT TESTS &
HOW-TO SPECIALS

- RIDING TIPS
- DO-IT-YOURSELF
- GEAR & BOLT-ON TESTS

$4.99

Art in entalies: Please display until Nov. 20

0 71486 02977 9

WORCS UTAH

Photos: Trystan Guard

TAYLOR RETURNS

Taylor Robert showed up to his first WORCS event of 2014 and walked away with the win aboard his Anthony D-tuned Red Bull KTM.

100%, FINALLY

Monster Energy Kawasaki/Precision Concepts rider Robby Bell is finally 100 percent healthy, and it shows. Bell was within striking distance of Robert, but a small mistake on the last lap cost him dearly.

ON THE BOX

Justin Seeds continued his podium streak in Utah, running a solid third place. We think Seeds is due for a W.

BACK IN ACTION

Colton Udall returned to WORCS racing action after a long absence. He finished fourth aboard his WFO-backed Honda 450x.

A LITTLE TROUBLE

Current points leader Gary Sutherlin had some mechanical issues in Utah and finished the race way behind the leaders.

TROY LEE/LUCAS OIL KTM

Yes, we are hearing talk that Troy Lee Designs will leave Honda and join the orange brigade for 2015.

ROCZEN & RCH

Will K-roc leave KTM for the yellow machines of RCH? Our sources say yes, it's a done deal.

HUSKY ON THE SCENE

Jason Anderson will for sure be the premier-class rider for Husqvarna in 2015. He is signed, and the announcements have gone out.

RED BULL ROMANIACS

Graham Jarvis negotiates one of the many water crossings en route to second overall.

Getting a little help from the locals is always appreciated.

Here is a little village on the Romanian countryside, a good place for Jonny Walker to take a breather.

Water and lush vegetation are everywhere at the Red Bull Romaniacs event.